

CONDITION OF STAMPS

The condition of a stamp is determined by how well it is centered between the perforations, how damaged the stamp is, the cancellation (if it is a used stamp), weathering, and fading.

Poor Centering

Damage: tears, missing perforations, thins

Heavy cancellations

Stains, weathering, fading

