Thailand

Thailand is located in the western part of the Malay peninsula in southeastern Asia.
There are three plates of the 1 solot:

(a) Oval at top containing Siamese characters has solid blue background, only found in shades of indigo.
(b) Oval with lined background, found in indigo, Prussian blue and dull blue.
(c) Oval with lined background, with dot outside the outer frame line at top corners and at the bottom right-hand corner, found in indigo and Prussian blue.

The type previously listed with lines passing through the white Siamese characters, is a re-entry of Type (c).

Thailand #C1-8 with overprint

Nos. C1-C8 received this overprint ("Government Museum 2468") in 1925, but were never issued. The death of King Vajiravudh caused cancellation of the fair at which this set was to have been released.

They were used during 1928 only in the interdepartmental service for accounting purposes of the money-order sections of various Bangkok post offices, and were never sold to the public. Value for canceled set, $75.45
