Find a stamp to represent each link in the food chain and affix to each strip. Then cut out each strip. Starting with the sun, put glue or tape at one end and loop it around to make a ring. Insert the next strip through the sun ring and glue the end. Continue until you have added the last two links to your food chain.